Opened in 1903, The Victoria Hotel was the very first purpose built hotel in Sidmouth. Lovingly restored, the Victoria Hotel has many authentic historical features, such as oak panelling, the sweeping original wooden staircase and charming stone turret rooms. Sidmouth rose to prominence when coastal bathing became popular in the Regency and Victorian periods. Indeed, Queen Victoria herself was brought to Sidmouth when she was only a baby. Years later, her third son, the Duke of Connaught became a regular visitor and Sidmouth's famous Connaught Gardens are named in his honour.

Our Lounge Menu is available from noon - 2pm.
All prices are per person.
