The eldest son of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, Albert Edward, AKA "Bertie," AKA King Edward VII, was born in 1841 in London. He was friendly, affable and well-liked, but he also had a reputation as a playboy who was more interested in women, horse racing, shooting, and drinking than fulfilling his royal duties. After the death of his mother in 1901, he was crowned King Edward VII, ruler of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India.

Why not try one of our delicious Berties cocktails where we have taken inspiration from the time of Bertie, and his mother and father, Queen Victoria and Prince Albert.

Prince of Wales Cocktail

17

Recipe adapted from David Wondrich's 2007 masterpiece Imbibe in which David tells the story of his highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, son of Queen Victoria and the mastering of his riff on the Improved Whisky cocktail.

Born 9th November 1841, he was not crowned King Edward VII until 9th August 1902 (ascended 22nd January 1901) and by all accounts made the most of his 60 years as understudy by becoming a playboy and travelling the world. In 1860 he became the 1st British Royal to visit North America and it is thought this cocktail resulted from the trip.

This cocktail is bursting with flavours of rich whiskey, maraschino and angostura with subtle pineapple balanced with brut champagne to create a lingering finish. Garnished with a twist of lemon.

Victoria and Albert

14

The namesake for the drink was clearly the "it" couple of the 1840's and 50's, Queen Victoria and Prince Albert. They had a very romantic relationship, and Victoria was heartbroken when Albert died of typhoid fever at age 42, after 21 years of marriage. Victoria wore black for the rest of her long life, and she had the servants lay out Albert's clothes for the next day every evening until she died. Their relationship is depicted in the movie The Young Victoria, with Emily Blunt as the queen and Rupert Friend as Prince Albert. Perhaps this is a fitting inspiration for a Vodka cocktail that is very sweet made with aperol and sugar syrup, with just a touch of bitterness from grapefruit at the end.

Victoria's Two W's

Queen Victoria liked a tippie, particularly beer, but her absolute favourite drink was said to be a combination of single malt Scotch whisky and Claret.

Our Wine and Whiskey Cocktail is an adaptation of Queen Victoria's favourite Drink and is the perfect combination of red wine, whiskey, and lemon with a little splash of simple syrup. If you love red wine and you love whiskey, you haven't lived until you've tried this cocktail.

Royal Regatta

This fresh and tasty cocktail is the Henley Royal Regatta's signature cocktail with a combination of gin, elderflower cordial, lemon juice, sugar syrup and fresh mint.

The first event took place in July 1839, and has been running every year since (apart from during WW1 and WW2). It began as a day out staged by the Mayor of Henley, and featured a funfair and amusements for the local townfolk. Amateur rowing races were later introduced and the competitive sport was soon the main attraction.

In 1851, Prince Albert became the Royal Patron of the Henley Regatta, and ever since the event has remained a royal affair with each reigning Monarch holding patronage. This is why it is now known as the Henley Royal Regatta.
